THIS MONTH IN AA HISTORY

Dec. 6th, 1979:
Henrietta Sieberling died.
She was responsible for arranging the meeting between her close friend Dr.
Bob. and Bill W.

Dec. 11th, 1934:
Bill W.'s sobriety date. He had his last 4 bottles of beer
on his way to Towns Hospital.

Dec. 14th, 1934:
Bill W. had his spiritual experience at Towns Hospital, which he describes a bright light filling his room and having a feeling of overwhelming peacefulness

Dec. 20th, 1945: Rowland H. died. He is "the American business man" our Big Book talks about on page 26.

Dec., 1938: Bill W. wrote the initial version of the Twelve Steps in approximately 30 minutes.
